We meet kedi (cats) as different as fearsome neighbourhood queen Psikopat and mild-mannered deli mascot Duman, and the artists, fishermen and traders who live with them and care for them on the streets. The Death of Louis XIV (12A)

Tue 26 Sep at 7.30pm

2016 France/Spain/Portugal 115 mins (subtitled)

DIRECTOR: ALBERT SERRA

STARS: JEAN-PIERRE LÉAUD, PATRICK D'ASSUMÇÃO, MARC SUSINI

Confined to his sumptuous rooms, the Sun King is fussed over by courtiers and valets, and there's a worrying mark developing on his foot. To make matters worse, the finest minds in 18th-century medicine are at his service. Léaud poignantly portrays the aged monarch's world-weariness, with flashes of his old charisma and lust for life, and the sets, costumes and supporting cast all convince. A rich vein of dark humour complements the sombre tone of this fine account of Louis's last days.
