As 1967 and 1968 unfold, 'les evenements' bring a general strike and riots to the streets of Paris, while revolution is debated at the Sorbonne. Newly-wed film director Jean Luc Godard supports the students and workers – which means renouncing his previously feted movies, and embracing radical new ways of film making. Somewhere along the way, his good humour turns to dogmatic sourness, and domestic tensions rise – the sparkling cast make this tragicomedy a spritely summer pleasure throughout!

We see him produce the charcoal and then make the slow and perilous journey with the 'crop' precariously balanced on an ancient bicycle. Croydon Festival of Peace. Filmed during the Dalai Lama's last UK visit before he stepped down as the exiled Political Leader of Tibet, the Nobel Peace Prize winner offers a radical vision of how we can create lasting peace within ourselves and on a global level. With intimate behind the scenes access and a candid personal interview, this film is as close to a flesh-and-blood encounter with the Dalai Lama as you can get. *Followed by a live Q&A with director Leon Stuparich.

Funny Cow (15)

Tue 26 June at 7.30pm

2017 UK 102 MINS

DIRECTOR: ADRIAN SHERGOLD

STARS: MAXINE PEAKE, PADDY CONSIDINE, STEPHEN GRAHAM

Croydon Comedy Festival. With a "funny bone for a back bone", a survivor of domestic abuse finds strength in performing and rises to stardom through the harsh environment of the Northern working men's clubs. Beast (15)

Thu 28 June at 7.30pm

2017 UK 107 MINS

DIRECTOR: MICHAEL PEARCE

STARS: JESSIE BUCKLEY, JOHNNY FLYNN, GERALDINE JAMES

Constrained by the strict rules of her domineering mother, a troubled woman seizes the opportunity for freedom and rebellion presented by the arrival of a stranger to her island community, even as suspicion mounts amidst a string of murders. Impressive debutant director Pearce has been compared to Hitchcock and Roeg for his gripping use of suspense and twisted psychological depth.

On Chesil Beach (15)

Thu 5 July at 2.30* & 7.30pm

2017 UK 110 MINS

DIRECTOR: DOMINIC COOKE

STARS: SAOIRSE RONAN, BILLY HOWLE, ANNE-MARIE DUFF

*Subtitled for those with hearing loss. First time director Cooke does true justice to Ian McEwan's adaptation of his own novella, telling the story of a young couple's first evening as a married couple. Ronan and Howle portray the lovers with subtlety and understatement, backed up by a stellar cast in supporting roles. Beautifully filmed in Oxford, London, and on the beach itself, this is a subtle meditation on confused expectations and lost opportunities.
