

David Lean Cinema Nov Programme

Our November programme features the Globe Theatre's performance of one of Shakespeare's greatest works plus a choice selection of world cinema.

Those films marked with a * will also feature the BRIT short, In the Middle of Nowhere. Tickets on sale from Thursday 5th October

Wed 1st, 2.30 & 7.30 - VICTORIA AND ABDUL (PG) – Stephen Frears directs the little-known story of the real-life relationship between Queen Victoria and her Indian servant Abdul Karim.

Thurs 2nd, 2.30 and 7.30 - BORG VS MCENROE (15) - Shia LaBeouf stars, charting the rivalry at the 1980 Wimbledon Championships.

Tues 7th, 7.30 - MOTHER! (18)– A couple's relationship is tested when uninvited guests arrive at their home, disrupting their tranquil existence.

Thurs 9th, 2.30 & 7.30 - LOVING VINCENT (15)  - The life of artist Vincent van Gogh is uniquely retold through the animation of oil paintings.

Tues 14th, 11.00 – Babes in Arms screening - THE BIG SICK (15) - A Pakistani comedian must choose between culture and love while finding out who he really is.

Tues 14th, 7.30 - IN BETWEEN (15) - Three Arab-Israeli women share an apartment in Tel Aviv, trying to balance their traditions with the modern world.

Thurs 16th, 11.00 (HOH) & 7.30 - GOODBYE CHRISTOPHER ROBIN (PG) - Telling the real-life triumphs and tragedies of Winnie the Pooh author A.A. Milne.

Tues 21st, 7.30 - 7 DAYS (12A)  - This bittersweet drama explores the exquisite agonies of midlife romance on a stunningly beautiful Mediterranean island.

Thurs 23th, 2.00 & 7.00 - HENRY V (U) - Shakespeare charts the romance of the King, while he wages a campaign for land in France. (tickets are £15 for all for this showing)

Tues 28th, 7.00 - BLADE RUNNER 2049 (15) - The much-anticipated sequel to the 1982 classic, a new Runner discovers a dark secret that could end humanity.

Thurs 30th, 2.30 & 7.30 - THE PARTY (15) - Kristin Scott Thomas and Timothy Spall join an all-star cast as a celebration of a politician's promotion gives an unexpected insight into the lives and loves of herself and her guests.

Sat 2nd Dec, 2.00 - THE TREE OF WOODEN CLOGS (12A) - An Italian classic showing both the ordinary and extraordinary of Lombard peasant life in the late 19th Century.